

“Shustov” restaurant owes its name to time-honored Shustov noble family (XVII Century) - famous merchants and philanthropists. This family founded the “N. Shustov & sons” company in the middle of the XIX century.

Just exactly this family is off-the record pioneers of cognac production in the Russian Empire including Armenia, Dagestan, Moldavia, Odessa... Shustov family reformed and perfected cognac distillation process. For strengthening of their product's fame, Nikolay Nikolayevich Shustov sent his cognac's samples incognito to the exhibition in Paris in 1900. Jury of highly experienced French tasters awarded the Grand Prix una voce to the unknown wine-maker. When they had got that the winner is not French, the jury had authorized for Nikolay (as the exception for the only one foreign cognac-producer) the right to mark his product with the word “cognac” not “brandy”. There are no more such precedents being known since that times.

Shustov's cognacs, liqueurs and nalewka's were benchmarks of the highest quality. Many family's recipes are save at present time. As well, at our restaurant you can always pamper yourself by our dainty and delicacy dishes of Russian cuisine.

RUSSIAN QUISINE

The menu of the “Shustov” restaurant is based on the traditional Russian food. Imagine the table which is served for the Sunday lunch. There is the steamed rich salmon Ukha with crispy rasstegays on the table. Salted milk mushrooms with sour cream, herring, soaked in milk with onion rings, boiled potato and piece of butter are in there as well. And what the steaks do we have! Now, please, fancy sizzling marble beef steak on the roaster, or lamb ribs with pomegranate sauce... Fine wine is the best pair for a steak. At the “Shustov” we present several dozens of the wines from France, Italy, Spain and the New World as well. Often we invite our guests for the degustation events where it is possible to try very rare wines. Besides, we have professional sommelier at the restaurant. Our desserts - this is a special talk with a separate menu. Genuine honey cake, airy Mille-feuill and “Napoleon” cake house-style.
